

Run an Employee Net Report

Employee Net Report

The Employee Net Report takes all of the items invoiced out for the employee and breaks the results down into three sections. Inventory, Products, and Total. The Inventory section shows gross cost, base cost, and gross. The Other Products section shows gross cost, base cost, and gross. The All section shows gross cost, base cost, and gross. It is a great report to use when paying employees based on production. It is good for this as it records all products invoiced out under that employee and factors in the cost of goods sold. Many locations give a different production rate for inventory items they do for services. If this is not a factor, then you have the ability to just utilize the All Products section of the report.
